BOLI Issues Guidance on New Oregon Statewide Sick Leave Law

Author: James M. Barrett (Portland)

Published Date: December 11, 2015

The Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries (BOLI) has issued additional guidance on complying with the new Oregon statewide mandatory paid sick leave law, Senate Bill 454, OL 2015, Ch. 537, which takes effect on January 1, 2016.

The additional guidance includes the Final Administrative Rules, a model Sick Time Notification to employees, and a limited number of answers to Frequently Asked Questions about the law.

BOLI will conduct two-hour training sessions on the new sick law throughout the state, and dates and locations will be posted on the agency's website .

James M. Barrett (Portland)

James Barrett represents private and public employers in all aspects of employment-related disputes. He has defended clients against single plaintiff and class action lawsuits involving claims relating to wage and hour disputes, drug testing, whistleblowing, discrimination, and retaliation. He has also successfully obtained injunctive relief to enforce non-competition agreements against a client's former employees.
