PRETRIAL INSTRUCTIONS

A. PRETRIAL MOTIONS

1. All dispositive motions are to be heard as described above.
2. Only one summary judgment motion may be filed by each side, absent leave of court. Leave of court may be sought if multiple parties comprise one or both sides. Leave of court may be obtained by filing a motion for administrative relief pursuant to Civ. L. R. 7-11, or by requesting a case management conference or informal telephone conference.
3. Separate statements of undisputed facts in support of or in opposition to motions for summary judgment shall NOT be filed unless otherwise ordered by the court. See Civil L. R. 56-2. The parties may file a truly joint statement of undisputed facts only if all parties agree that the facts are undisputed.

4. Objections to evidence may not be filed separately but must be contained within a brief or memorandum. Civil L. R. 7-3.
5. Each party filing or opposing a motion shall also serve and file a proposed order which sets forth the relief or action sought and a short statement of the rationale of decision, including citation of authority that the party requests the court to adopt.
6. Chambers copies of each electronically-filed document must include on each page the running header created by the ECF system. Chambers copies must be delivered to the Clerk's Office in Eureka by noon the day following the filing of the document. All documents must be stapled or bound by a two-pronged fastener, and all exhibits to declarations or requests for judicial notice must be tabbed.
7. Footnotes appearing in font smaller than the 12-point font required for the text will be stricken, see Civil L. R. 3-4(c)(2), as will footnotes that are so numerous as to be clearly designed to defeat the page limits found at Civil L. R. 7-2 - 7-4.
8. Absent leave of court, motions pursuant to Daubert v. Merrill Dow Pharmaceuticals, Inc., 509 U.S. 579 (1993), challenging the reliability of expert testimony, shall be noticed for hearing no later than the date dispositive motions will be heard. Irrespective of the hearing date, the briefs shall be filed in accordance with Civil L. R. 7-2 - 7-5, that is, on a 35-day briefing schedule.
9. Motions in limine are limited to motions to exclude specific items of evidence on a ground and upon such authority as would be sufficient to sustain an objection to such evidence at trial. The court will not generally consider a motion presenting a purely legal issue in the guise of a motion in limine.
10. Confidential and/or sealed documents shall be handled in accordance with this court's standing order and Civil L.R. 79-5, both of which the parties shall consult before moving for a protective order or requesting a sealing order. Requests to seal documents used in conjunction with dispositive motions are rarely granted and then only upon a showing of the most compelling of reasons. Chambers copies with confidential materials will be handled like all other chambers copies of materials without special restriction, and will typically be recycled, not shredded. If the parties wish to dispose of documents filed under

1 seal in some other way, they must so note in their sealing motion and pick up the
2 documents within five court days of the disposition of the motion.

3
4 B. FINAL PRETRIAL CONFERENCE

- 5 1. The pretrial conference shall be attended by lead trial counsel and/or the unrepresented
6 party who will try the case.

8 parties shall meet and confer regarding preparation of the joint pretrial statement.

1. Serve and file a proposed verdict form which contains no reference to submitting party. An electronic copy of these documents shall be e-mailed to njvpo@cand.uscourts.gov.
4. No party shall be permitted to call any witness or offer any exhibit in its case in chief that is not disclosed in these pretrial filings without leave of court and for good cause.
5. Not less than 14 days prior to the pretrial conference, counsel and/or unrepresented parties shall serve and file any opposition to a motion in limine, any counter deposition designations, and any disputed voir dire questions and jury instructions. No replies shall be filed. All motions shall be heard at the pretrial conference unless otherwise ordered. The parties shall not file separate objections, apart from those contained in the motions in limine, to the opposing party's witness list, exhibit list or discovery designations.

C. JURY TRIAL

Jury selection shall proceed as follows: The Jury Commissioner will summon 35 prospective jurors. The Courtroom Deputy will select their names at random and seat them in the courtroom in the order in which their names are called. Voir dire will be conducted of sufficient venire members so that eight will remain after all peremptory challenges and an anticipated number of hardship dismissals and cause challenges have been made.

Voir dire shall be conducted by the court. Counsel will be permitted brief follow-up voir dire after the court's questioning.

The court will take cause challenges and discuss hardship claims in chambers. The court will inform counsel which hardship claims and cause challenges will be granted, but will not announce those dismissals until the selection process is completed. Peremptory challenges will be made in chambers. Each party shall be limited to three peremptory challenges. Any party passing on a challenge will be deemed to have waived that challenge. The court will strike at one time those with meritorious hardship claims, those excused for cause, and those challenged peremptorily, and then seat the first eight people remaining in numerical order.

The following jury instructions from the Ninth Circuit Manual of Model Jury Instructions Civil (2007 Edition) shall be given absent objection: 1.0 - 1.4, 1.6 - 1.14, 1.18 - 1.19, 3.1 - 3.4.

1 Counsel shall submit a joint set of these instructions along with case specific instructions using
2 the Ninth Circuit Manual where appropriate. Any instructions on which counsel cannot agree may
3 be submitted separately. Each instruction shall be typed in full on a separate page with citations to
4 the authority upon which it is based and a reference to the party submitting it. A second blind
5 copy of each instruction shall also be submitted omitting the citation to authority, the reference to 6 the submitting party, and the title of the instruction.

7 Should a daily transcript and/or realtime reporting be desired, the parties shall make
8 arrangements with Debra Campbell, Court Reporter Supervisor, at (415) 522-2079 or 9 Debra_Campbell@cand.uscourts.gov, at least 14 calendar days prior to the trial date.

11 D. TRIAL SCHEDULE

12 The court's trial schedule is 9 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., and 1:00 p.m. to 4 p.m., with two fifteen-
13 minute breaks. The court conducts trial five days a week.

14
15 E. PROCEDURE FOR AMENDING THIS ORDER

16 No provision of this order may be changed except by written order of this court upon its 17 own motion or upon motion of one or more parties made pursuant to Civil. L. R. 7-11 with a
18 showing of good cause. Parties may file a formal brief, but a letter brief will suffice. The 19 requesting party shall serve the opposing party on the same day the motion is filed and the 20 opposing party shall submit a response as soon as possible but no later than four days after service.

21 If the modification sought is an extension of a deadline contained herein, the motion must
22 be brought before expiration of that deadline. The parties may not modify the pretrial schedule
23 by stipulation. A conflict with a court date set after the date of this order does not constitute good
24 cause. The parties are advised that if they stipulate to a change in the discovery schedule, they do
25 so at their own risk. The only discovery schedule that the court will enforce is the one set in this 26 order.

27 IT IS SO ORDERED.
