The pretrial order shall be prepared in accordance with the outline attached as Annex A. Such applications are disfavored.*

Ready for Trial

Counsel must be prepared to proceed to trial on twenty four (24) hours telephone notice once the pretrial order has been filed. Any party with a scheduling problem should bring it to the Court's attention by letter at the time the pretrial order is filed.

Bench Trials

In bench trials, counsel shall prepare and exchange statements containing the direct testimony of each witness they intend to call. These witness statements, copies of which are to be addressed to chambers and delivered to the Marshals with copies of all exhibits at least one week before trial, shall be used at trial in accordance with the following procedure.

Form of Statement

Unless otherwise ordered and as provided below, a declaration or affidavit containing the direct testimony of each witness stated in narrative, rather than question and answer, form shall be provided for each witness that a party intends to call on its case in chief. The declaration or affidavit shall contain all of the relevant facts to which the witness would testify including facts necessary to establish the foundation for the testimony.

Use of Statements

At the trial, each witness whose direct testimony previously has been submitted in affidavit or declaration form shall take the stand and under oath shall reaffirm the affidavit or declaration is true and correct. The party offering that witness then shall offer the affidavit or declaration as an exhibit, subject to appropriate objections by the opposing party on which the court will then rule. For good cause shown, the witness then may be allowed to supplement his or her statement by any additional live direct testimony considered necessary by counsel.

Thereafter cross-examination and any redirect shall proceed in the ordinary course.

Exceptions to Use of Written Direct Testimony

Submission of direct testimony in affidavit or declaration form will be required of the parties and other witnesses under their control. They are not to be used for adverse parties or for persons whose attendance must be compelled by subpoena.

Exhibits

Documents to be offered as exhibits shall not be attached to witness statements but shall be pre-marked and exchanged along with other proposed exhibits in the usual fashion.

Juries ordinarily will be selected by the struck panel method.

Counsel shall provide chambers with two courtesy copies of their briefs, and counsel for appellant shall provide it with one courtesy copy of the record, immediately upon the filing of the originals with the Clerk of Court. The page limits applicable to memoranda of law on motions apply to briefs on bankruptcy appeals.
