shall deliver a copy of the plea agreement to chambers on the 18th Floor in San Francisco by 2:00p.m. the Friday before the plea is to be entered. If there is to be an open plea, counsel for thedefendant shall notify the Court by 2:00 pm the Friday before the open plea is to be entered.

MOTIONS

7. Motions must be noticed for a hearing in accordance with Criminal Local Rule 471. Counsel need not reserve a hearing date in advance. However, before selecting a hearing date, counsel must consult Judge Gilliam's scheduling notes to determine which dates are available.
Motions may be reset as the Court's calendar requires. All motions shall comply with Criminal Local Rule 47-2. Please refer to this Court's Criminal Pretrial and Trial Standing Order for information regarding motions in limine.

COURTESY COPIES

IT IS SO ORDERED.
