Brooklyn, New York 11201

Telephone: (718) 613-2540
Fax: (718) 613-2546
Fax Page Limit: 10 Pages

Courtroom Deputy: Joseph D. Reccoppa
Telephone: (718) 613-2545

Motions Returnable: Set by the Court.

Unless otherwise ordered, matters before Judge Garaufis shall be conducted in accordance with the following rules:

I. ELECTRONIC CASE FILING (ECF)

- A. All documents must be filed electronically.
- B. Orders will be posted electronically. Parties not registered on ECF will not receive them.
- C. Hard copies of all papers filed electronically, including motions, letters, and stipulations, must be provided to Chambers. All such papers must be clearly marked “Courtesy Copy,” “Original Filed by ECF,” and “Assigned Docket Number ____.” However, parties should not submit hard copies of the following filings: (1) pleadings as defined by Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 7(a); (2) motions, letters, or other filings directed to the magistrate judge assigned to the matter; and (3) any papers that are fewer than five pages in length.
- D. Parties filing voluminous or non-text exhibits that are impractical to file electronically should, if possible, submit a Portable Document Format (PDF) or WordPerfect version on a compact disc to the Clerk’s Office (labeled “Original”) and to Chambers (labeled “Courtesy Copy”). Related papers that are electronically filed must clearly indicate in what manner the exhibits have been filed.
- E. Pro se parties are automatically exempt from mandatory electronic filing. However, parties represented by counsel in pro se cases must file documents electronically and mail a hard copy of the documents to the pro se litigant.

- F. Requests by attorneys for an exemption to the mandatory policy will be considered for good cause hardship reasons only and will be reviewed on an individual basis by the assigned United States Magistrate Judge. However, no request will be granted until the attorney has registered for ECF and sought ECF training. Questions regarding ECF filing or training should be directed to Terry Vaughn or Marilyn Glenn at (718) 613-2330/2610.
- G. Sealed documents or documents containing sealed/sensitive information must be submitted in hard copy only and labeled "File under seal."

II. COMMUNICATIONS WITH CHAMBERS

- A. Letters.
Except as provided below, communication with chambers shall be by letter (filed electronically), with copies simultaneously delivered to all counsel. Letters for extensions of time and other administrative requests should be sent to chambers via fax and filed on ECF. Copies of correspondence between or among counsel shall not be sent to the Court.
- B. Telephone Calls.
Except as provided in Rule II(D) below, telephone calls to chambers are permitted only in situations requiring immediate attention. In such situations only, call chambers at the number listed above.
- C. Faxes.
Faxes to chambers are permitted only for time-sensitive requests and where copies are also simultaneously faxed or delivered to all counsel. Parties submitting a fax must still file the document electronically subject to the exemptions set forth in Rule I. No document longer than 10 pages may be faxed without prior authorization. Do not follow with hard copy.
- D. Docketing, Scheduling, and Calendar Matters.
For docketing, scheduling, and calendar matters, call Courtroom Deputy Joseph Reccoppa at (718) 613-2545.
- E. Request for Adjournments or Extensions of Time.
All requests for adjournments or extensions of time must be faxed to chambers and filed on ECF, and must state:
 1. The original date;
 2. The number of previous requests for adjournment or extension;
 3. Whether these previous requests were granted or denied;
 4. Whether the adversary consents, and, if not, the reason given by the adversary for refusing to consent; and
 5. Whether the adjournment or extension affects any other scheduled dates. If so, the party must provide a proposed Revised Scheduling Order.

If the request is for an adjournment of a court appearance, absent an emergency it shall be made at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled appearance. Requests for adjournment based on illness of counsel shall be accompanied by a doctor's certificate.

III. CIVIL MOTIONS

A. Pre-Motion Conferences in Civil Cases.

1. For discovery motions, follow Local Civil Rules 6.4 and 37.3.
2. For any dispositive motion, motion for a change of venue, or motion to amend a pleading pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 15 (where leave of court is required), a pre-motion conference is required. The movant shall write to the court requesting such conference, with a brief description of the grounds for such motion. Opposition to requests for a pre-motion conference will not be considered.
3. If a party wishes to make a motion of the type listed in Rule III.A.2 before filing its answer, that party shall simultaneously request an extension of its time to answer when it requests a pre-motion conference.
4. No pre-motion conference shall be required for post-trial motions, pro se habeas corpus/prisoner petitions, social security appeals, bankruptcy appeals, or objections to Reports and Recommendations.

B. Filing of Motion Papers.

1. No motion papers shall be filed until the motion has been fully briefed. The notice of motion and all supporting papers are to be served on the other parties in accordance with the briefing schedule, and shall include a cover letter setting forth whom the movant represents and the papers being served.
2. Once the motion is fully briefed, the original moving party shall be responsible for filing the full set of papers on ECF and providing chambers with a full set of courtesy copies of the motion papers together with a cover letter specifying each document in the package. The adversary is responsible for providing the movant with a courtesy copy of its opposition papers for inclusion in the submission to chambers. A copy of the cover letter shall be sent to the assigned magistrate judge and to opposing counsel.
3. Subject to court approval, the parties are to set up their own briefing schedule. Approval may be given at the pre-motion conference or by subsequent letter. No party is to serve any motion papers prior to obtaining court approval for the schedule. No changes in the approved schedule may be made without court approval.

- C. Memoranda of Law.
Unless prior permission has been granted, memoranda of law in support of and in opposition to motions are limited to 25 pages, not including appendices or attachments, and reply memoranda are limited to 10 pages, not including appendices or attachments. Memoranda of 10 pages or more shall contain a table of contents. Use Times New Roman 12-point font, double-spaced, and one-inch margins. All memoranda must have the date of service plainly visible on the front cover. No letter briefs shall be permitted.
- D. Oral Argument on Motions.
Parties may request oral argument by letter at the time their moving or opposing papers are filed. The court will determine whether to hear oral argument and, if so, will advise counsel of the argument date. Counsel so advised is responsible for informing all other parties.
- E. Motions for Reconsideration
Motions for reconsideration are exempt from rule III(B). The moving party shall comply with the filing requirements as set forth in Rule 12 of the Fed. R. Civ. Pro. and must include with the motion a mutually agreed-upon date on which the non-movant's response shall be filed. No brief shall exceed five (5) pages.

IV. CRIMINAL MOTIONS

- A. Pre-Motion Conferences in Criminal Cases.
Counsel shall advise the Court of any motions they want to file at a status conference scheduled by the Court. If no status conference has been scheduled, counsel shall request a pre-motion conference in writing and briefly state the grounds for such motion.
- B. Filing of Motion Papers.
1. For all cases where electronic filing is required (see section "I" above), each party shall be responsible for the electronic filing of its own motion papers at its respective due date. As provided in section B.2 below, a courtesy copy of the motion papers shall not be sent to the court until the motion has been fully briefed. The notice of motion, memorandum of law, and other supporting papers are to be served on the other parties along with a cover letter setting forth whom the movant represents and the papers being served.
2. Unless otherwise directed by the Court, follow Rule III(B)(2), (3) above.
- C. Memoranda of Law.
Unless prior permission has been granted, memoranda of law in support of and in opposition to motions are limited to 25 pages, not including appendices or attachments, and reply memoranda are limited to 10 pages, not including appendices or attachments. Memoranda of 10 pages or more shall contain a table of contents. Use Times New Roman 12-point font, double-spaced, and one-inch margins. All memoranda must have the date of service plainly visible on the front cover. No letter briefs shall be permitted.

D. Oral Argument on Motions.

Oral argument on all criminal motions will be heard on a date set by the Court.

E. Sentencing Motions.

Applications regarding sentencing shall be made in writing by defense counsel at least 5 business days prior to the date of sentencing. The Government's response, if any, shall be made in writing at least 2 business days before the date of sentencing.

V. PRETRIAL PROCEDURES

A. Joint Pretrial Orders in Civil Cases.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, within 60 days from the date for the completion of discovery in a civil case, under the supervision of the magistrate judge, the parties shall submit to the court for its approval a joint pretrial order, which shall include the following information:

1. The full caption of the action.
2. The names (including firm names), addresses, and telephone and fax numbers of trial counsel.
3. A brief statement by plaintiff as to the basis of subject matter jurisdiction, and a brief statement by each other party as to the presence or absence of subject matter jurisdiction. Such statements shall include citations to all statutes relied on and relevant facts as to citizenship and jurisdictional amount.
4. A brief summary by each party of the claims and defenses that party has asserted which remain to be tried, without recital of evidentiary matter, and including citations to all statutes relied on. Such summaries shall identify all claims and defenses previously asserted which are not to be tried.
5. A statement by each party as to whether the case is to be tried with or without a jury, and the number of trial days needed.
6. A statement as to whether or not all parties have consented to trial of the case by a magistrate judge (without identifying which parties have or have not so consented).
7. Any stipulations or statements of fact or law which have been agreed to by all parties.
8. A list of the names and addresses of all witnesses, including possible witnesses who will be called only for impeachment or rebuttal purposes and so designated, together with a brief statement of the expected testimony of each witness. Only listed witnesses will be permitted to testify except when prompt notice has been given and good cause shown.

9. A designation by each party of deposition testimony to be offered in its case in chief, with any cross-designations and objections by any other party.
10. A schedule listing exhibits to be offered in evidence and, if not admitted by stipulation, the party or parties that will be offering them. The schedule will also include possible impeachment documents and/or exhibits, as well as exhibits that will be offered only on rebuttal.

The parties will list and briefly describe the basis for any objections that they have to the admissibility of any exhibits to be offered by any other party. Parties are expected to resolve before trial all issues of authenticity, chain of custody and related grounds. Meritless objections based on these grounds may result in the imposition of sanctions.

Only exhibits listed will be received in evidence except for good cause shown.

B. Filings Prior to Trial in Civil Cases.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, 15 days before the commencement of the trial, the parties shall file:

1. Motions in limine. Motions addressing evidentiary or other trial-related issues which should be resolved in limine must be filed no later than twenty days before commencement of jury selection. Responses, if any, shall be due five days later. Oral argument, if necessary, shall be scheduled at the convenience of the court.
2. Proposed voir dire questions, jury instructions and verdict sheet. Parties shall submit a hard-copy of such materials and a CD in WordPerfect format. Requests to charge should be limited to elements of the claims, the damages sought and defenses. General instructions will be prepared by the Court.
3. A detailed statement regarding damages and other relief sought for each claim.
4. In non-jury cases a statement of the elements of each claim or defense involving each party, together with a summary of the facts relied upon to establish each element.
5. A pretrial memorandum in any case where a party believes such would be useful.

C. Filings Prior to Trial in Criminal Cases.

Unless otherwise directed by the court, the following procedures shall be followed:

1. Motions in limine. Motions addressing evidentiary or other trial-related issues which should be resolved in limine must be filed no later than 10 days before commencement of jury selection. Responses, if any, shall be due 5 days later. Oral argument shall be scheduled at the convenience of the court.
2. Proposed voir dire questions, as well as lists of all potential witnesses and any other individuals and entities that may be mentioned at trial, shall be submitted at least 7 days before jury selection.
3. Requests to charge shall be submitted at least 7 days before trial. See Rule V.B.2 above for technical requirements.

D. Trial Exhibits.

All exhibits to be used at trial shall be pre-marked and exchanged with the other parties at least 10 days before trial. No later than the first day of trial all parties are to provide the Court with tabbed binders containing copies of all exhibits.

VI. POST TRIAL PROCEDURES

In non-jury trials, parties shall file proposed findings of fact and conclusions of law no later than 10 days after the conclusion of trial. No responses to such submissions shall be permitted.
