Letters to be filed under seal or containing sensitive or confidential information may be e-mailed to the Court (ChambersNYSDRamos@nysd.uscourts.gov) as a .pdf attachment with a copy simultaneously delivered to all counsel. Any such e-mail shall state clearly in the subject line: (1) the caption of the case, including the lead party names and docket number; and (2) a brief description of the contents of the letter. Parties shall not include substantive communications in the body of the e-mail; such communications shall be included only in the body of the letter.

Parties shall not submit courtesy copies of letters that are filed as described above.

- B. Telephone Calls. Except as provided below, telephone calls to chambers are permitted only in situations requiring immediate attention. In such situations, call chambers at (212) 805-0294.
- C. Faxes and Emails. Faxes to chambers are not permitted except with prior approval. The fax number is (212) 805-7943. Except as otherwise provided in Section 1.A. above, if a party wishes to email a .pdf document to the Court, it must obtain prior permission. Faxes and emails should indicate who in chambers provided such permission, and must be copied to all counsel. If a document is faxed or emailed to chambers, do NOT also send a hard copy.

- D. Docketing, Scheduling, and Calendar Matters. Please call Jazmin Rivera, Courtroom Deputy Clerk, at (212) 805-4590, during regular business hours.
- E. Requests for Adjournments or Extensions of Time. All requests for adjournments or extensions of time shall be in writing and filed on ECF as letter-motions (if consistent with the S.D.N.Y. Local Rules and the S.D.N.Y. “Electronic Filing Rules and Instructions”), and must include:
- i. the original date;
 - ii. the number of previous requests for adjournment or extension, and the reason(s) therefor;
 - iii. whether the previous requests were granted or denied;
 - iv. the reason for the instant request; and
 - v. whether the adversary consents, and, if not, the reasons given by the adversary for refusing to consent.

If the requested adjournment or extension affects any other scheduled dates, a proposed Revised Scheduling Order must be attached. Absent extraordinary circumstances, requests for extensions will be denied if not made before the expiration of the original deadline. If the request is for an adjournment of a court appearance, absent an emergency, the request shall be made at least 48 hours prior to the scheduled appearance. Requests for extensions of deadlines regarding a matter that has been referred to a Magistrate Judge shall be directed to that assigned Magistrate Judge.

- F. Proposed Orders and Stipulations. All proposed orders, and stipulations requiring the Court’s signature, must be submitted directly to the Clerk. In ECF cases these documents must be sent by email to judgments@nysd.uscourts.gov. Please do not send courtesy copies to chambers.
- G. Courtesy Copies. One courtesy hard copy of all pleadings (complaint, answer, reply) and motion papers (with the exception of motions for admission pro hac vice), shall be submitted to chambers as soon as practicable after filing. Courtesy copies should be clearly marked as such. If hand-delivered, courtesy copies should be brought to the Court Security Officers at the Worth Street entrance to 500 Pearl Street, not to chambers.

PLEASE NOTE: If a courtesy copy of a document filed on ECF is not delivered to chambers, it may not come to the Court's attention in a timely manner.

Whenever possible, the courtesy hard copy should be accompanied by an electronic copy submitted on any portable media (CD/DVD preferred).

H. Urgent Communications. As a general matter, materials filed via ECF are reviewed by the Court the business day after they have been filed. If a submission requires immediate attention, please notify Chambers by telephone after you file the submission via ECF.

2. Pleadings and Motions

A. Pre-Motion Conference in Civil Cases.

- i. For discovery motions, follow Local Civil Rule 37.2, requiring the moving party to request an informal conference with the Court before the filing of any such motion. Strict adherence to Fed. R. Civ. P. 37(a)(1), the "meet and confer" rule, is required. The parties should be prepared to describe the time, place, and duration of the meeting, and to identify the counsel involved.
- ii. A pre-motion conference with the Court is required before making any other motion, except motions in cases involving incarcerated pro se litigants, motions for admission pro hac vice, motions for reargument or reconsideration, and motions for temporary restraining orders or preliminary injunctions. To arrange a pre-motion conference, the moving party shall submit a letter, not to exceed three pages, setting forth the basis for the anticipated motion. The opposing party shall submit a letter, also not to exceed three pages, setting forth its position within three business days from the service of the moving party's letter. If a pre-motion conference is requested in connection with proposed motion to dismiss, the request will stay the deadline for the requesting party to move or answer, and a new deadline will be set at the conference.

B. Motion Papers.

- i. Unless prior permission has been granted, memoranda of law in support of and in opposition to motions are limited to 25 pages, and reply memoranda are limited to 10 pages. Memoranda of 10 pages or more shall contain a table of contents. All memoranda of law shall be in 12-point font or larger and be double-spaced, and shall have one inch margins on all sides. Unless prior permission has been granted, sur-reply memoranda will not be accepted.

- ii. All documents submitted in connection with motions must be bound in any manner that is secure, does not obscure the text, and permits the document to lie reasonably flat when open. Parties should submit multiple volumes rather than large documents that do not lie reasonably flat when open.

C. Special Rules for Summary Judgment Motions.

- i. Except for pro se litigants, the moving party shall provide all other parties with an electronic copy of the moving party's Statement of Material Facts pursuant to Local Civil Rule 56.1. Opposing parties must reproduce each entry in the moving party's Rule 56.1 Statement, and set out the opposing party's response directly beneath it.
- ii. With respect to any deposition transcript that is supplied, whether in whole or in part, in connection with a summary judgment motion, the index to the deposition should be included if it is available.
- iii. Except for pro se litigants, the parties shall provide the Court with an electronic, text-searchable courtesy copy of any hearing or deposition transcript, or a portion thereof, on which the parties rely, if such a copy is available, unless doing so would be unduly burdensome. (Parties shall provide these materials on a CD only, not on a DVD or memory stick and not by email.)

- D. Oral Argument on Motions. Parties may request oral argument by letter at the time their moving, opposing or reply papers are filed. The Court will determine whether argument will be heard and, if so, will advise counsel of the date and time.

3. Pretrial Procedures

- A. Joint pretrial statements in Civil Cases. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, within 30 days after the date for completion of discovery in a civil case, or, if a dispositive motion has been filed, within 30 days after a decision on the motion, the parties shall file a joint pretrial statement, with one courtesy hard copy for chambers.

A brief summary by each party of the claims and defenses that party has asserted that remain to be tried, without recital of evidentiary matter but including citations to all statutes relied on. The parties shall also identify all claims and defenses previously asserted that are not to be tried.
- v. A statement by each party as to whether the case is to be tried with or without a jury, and the number of trial days needed.
- vi. A statement as to whether all parties have consented to trial of the case by a magistrate judge (without identifying which parties have or have not so consented).
- vii. Any stipulations or agreed statements of fact or law.
- viii. A list of the witnesses each party expects to call on its case in chief, including a very brief description of the witness's role and/or the subject matter of his or her anticipated testimony, and a statement as to whether any other party objects to the witness.

B. Filings Prior to Trial in Civil Cases. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, each party shall file the following documents, and submit two courtesy hard copies to chambers, 15 days before the date of commencement of trial if such a date has been fixed, or 30 days after the filing of the joint pretrial statement if no date has been fixed:

If the parties cannot agree to a paragraph after good faith efforts, their respective proposed paragraphs (designated as such) should be set for in their respective voir dire submissions. In addition to being filed in the normal manner, proposed jury instructions should be emailed to Judge Ramos' law clerk. Counsel should call chambers at (212) 805-0294 to make arrangements for same. Each proposed jury instruction must contain a citation to the source/authority for the proposed instruction, or the request will be disregarded.

Only those witnesses who will be cross-examined need appear at trial. The original affidavit shall be marked as an exhibit at trial.

SENTENCING PROCEDURES

Unless permission to the contrary has been obtained, every document in a sentencing submission, including letters, should be filed in the public record, either in paper form or through the ECF system, using the procedures described below. The defendant is responsible for filing all letters submitted on behalf of the defendant, including those from friends, relatives, etc. The Government is responsible for filing all letters from victims.

In this regard, the parties are referred to E-Government Act of 2002 and the Southern District's ECF Rules & Instructions, Section 21, Privacy and Public Access to ECF cases, ("Privacy Policy") and reminded not, unless necessary, to include the five categories of "sensitive information" in their submissions (i.e., social security numbers; names of minor children [use the initials only]; dates of birth [use the year only]; financial account numbers; and home addresses [use only the city and state]). Parties may redact the five categories of "sensitive information" and the six categories of information requiring caution (i.e., personal identifying numbers; medical records, treatment and diagnosis; employment history; individual financial information; proprietary or trade secret information; and information regarding an individual's cooperation with the government) as described in the Privacy Policy, without application to the Court. If any material is redacted from the publicly filed document, only those pages containing the redacted material will be filed under seal. Bring a copy of those pages to the sentencing proceeding, marked to indicate what information has been redacted from the publicly filed materials, to give to the Court for filing under seal.

1. A defendant's sentencing submission shall be served two weeks in advance of the date set for sentence. The Government's sentencing submission shall be served one week in advance of the date set for sentence. The parties should provide the Court with one courtesy copy of each submission when it is served. At the time it is served, a party shall file its sentencing submission following one of the two procedures described here.
 - A. Paper Filing. If the case is not electronically filed, letters must be filed as hard copies. A party shall group all letters together in a single paper filing under a cover marked SENTENCING MEMORANDUM with the caption and docket number clearly indicated and submit it to the Clerk's Office.
 - B. ECF Filing. If the case is electronically filed, letters must be electronically filed on the ECF system. A party shall group and file the letters together as attachments to a single document marked SENTENCING MEMORANDUM with the caption and docket number clearly indicated.
2. If a party redacts information beyond the eleven categories of information identified in the Privacy Policy, an application to do so must be served and filed at the time the sentencing submission is served. The application should clearly identify the redaction and explain the reasons for the redaction. The application will be addressed at the sentencing proceeding.
3. If you have any questions about these procedures, contact Judge Ramos' Courtroom Deputy Clerk, Jazmin Rivera, at (212) 805-4590.
